Cabarrus County submits the following Rule 26(f) Report to the Court.

In response to the Rule 26(a) disclosures, the County informs the Court that these parties were involved in an unemployment hearing in which witnesses testified and documents were exchanged on the issues raised in this lawsuit. The parties also provided information in the EEOC charge and response. There is no insurance involved in this case. The defendant does not believe there will be any expert witnesses required in this case.

No changes are required concerning the disclosures under Rule 26(a). There are no issues concerning preservation of electronically stored information or privilege or protection of trial preparation materials. There does not need to be any change in the limitations imposed on discovery under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or the local rules.
